

Piano Articles for WWBP - 15/2/21

Title - Learning piano vs cello - X things to consider

Title - Piano or Violin, which is easier to learn? (Beginner's Guide)

Both articles ~ 1500 words

- Ideally written by the same writer who has musical experience. Would be perfect if they play piano/string instrument and know first hand the demands both instruments have.
- My site is about pianos with a leaning towards the digital variety and online learning.

Title - What is the most versatile instrument? 1500 words

Angle I'm coming from here is for organic acoustic instruments then it's the piano. However, when digital/electronic devices are allowed then it's the synthesizer. Some interesting answers on reddit that cover this. Obviously, digital pianos come with a variety of 'voices' and there are MIDI keyboards that come with weighted keys.

Title - Do you need a webcam for online piano lessons? - 1500 words

- Would be great if this could be written by writer who wrote "Are remote piano lessons via Video Chat Apps a good idea?" as will look to link these together
- Article for both teachers and students
- Built in vs external webcam (why external is better)
- Set up - Overhead vs 90 degree angle vs over the shoulder
- These webcams would be good to reference
- 2 web cams - best & value,
